

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Secretary Chandler has ordered a Hayes salute of 185 guns fired.

The New York Herald acknowledges that Hayes will be the next President.

Chamberlain has been inaugurated Governor of South Carolina.

Gov. Grover of Oregon will gain nothing by his coup d'etat. He may however lose his seat in the Senate through his foolishness.

The Brooklyn catastrophe is greater than first reported. More than three hundred and fifty lives were lost in the burning theater.

Hendricks thinks the question is not settled yet, and admits the possibility of their being two Presidents.

The Democrats have concluded to admit the Colorado Representative.

Woodburn has been appointed upon the Florida Select Committee.

The Democracy still talk of impeaching Grant.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT.

The Director of the Mint, in his annual report, says the gold coined this year amounted to $38,479,000 and silver $49,127,000, being an increase of $1,625,000 and $1,050,000 respectively. The Mints have been run to the fullest capacity. In case the coinage is to be increased the Director recommends that the New Orleans Mint be reopened. From the most authentic sources of information it has been ascertained that the domestic production of gold and silver for the fiscal year was about $85,250,000, of which amount $46,750,000 was gold and $38,500,000 silver. The Director proposes several changes in the coinage of the silver dollar under the double standard and recommends that its legal tender be increased to $10. He also recommends that the trade-dollar be coined exclusively on the Government's account and be made a legal tender to the amount of $50 or $100; that it is already a valuable trade coin, and if made a legal tender to the amount stated would enable the banks to better stock themselves with specie and in other ways prove a useful addition to the circulation; that the special value which this coin possesses for export to China would operate to prevent a redundancy and any undue withdrawal could be replaced by coinage at par.

The Raymond & Ely Mining Company have levied an assessment of $1 per share, amounting to $30,000, due on the 1st of January 1877, and at the office ten days later. This is the sixth assessment, the last previous one having been levied November 5, 1875.

The Parish Guide, a monthly publication issued under the editorial management of Revs. H. L. Foster and S. P. Kell, at Carson, and for and in behalf of the various Episcopal parishes throughout the State, will make its appearance this week.

The Virginia Chronicle says the mining prospects along the Comstock was never better than at present, although the market, with the exception of Overman and Caladonia quotations, has not corresponded with the merit of the mines.

Trade Dollars are selling at par in San Francisco—no more ten percent discount. The brokers are buying them at 98 cents, but sell them for one dollar each.

It is highly probable that the party that wins the President this time will be beaten in 1880. And that should be consolation sufficient for the defeated.

It is doubtless true that the leaders of both parties in the three contested Southern States were doing all they could to win success even by cheating!

A Western woman said of her lost husband: "Daniel will be known by a scar on his nose, where I scratched him."

TAXING CHURCH PROPERTY.

Toward the close of the year, when the tax collector comes round to gather a harvest from over-taxed real estate—say upon the house which a poor man has been struggling for twenty years to free from mortgage—he naturally recalls the fact that his home is taxed to excess, while church property is exempt. And this fact is impressed more strongly upon us because few have made pecuniary progress this year, while a majority of the people will find great difficulty in making "both ends meet."

The question of taxing church property in this country is yet to come before us, to be logically discussed, and judicially settled. Heretofore the advocates of taxation have been unreasonably charged with cupiditv, with unbelief, and even worse imputations. But the advocates of taxation do not propose to tax religion—but simply to tax all real estate in proper proportion to its value. We see no injustice in this; and we cannot imagine why a rich and prosperous church society should be excluded from paying its share of the public expense.

The value of church property, especially in the cities, is very large. A modest, plain building for the worship of God does not suit the desires and tastes of modern Christians; they must build costly, cathedral-like houses of worship—often costing hundreds of thousands of dollars, together with extravagant furniture, costly organs, etc. In fact, many city churches are little less than fashionable Sunday resorts, where the Divine Master is too often ignored. Of course, there can never be a unanimous agreement about taxing church property; yet we think the majority of the American people will decide that if religion is worth anything it is worth paying for, and that church property should be taxed, like all other real estate.

LEGISLATION FOR CAPITAL.

The convening of Congress reminds us that no inconsiderable part of every session of Congress is devoted to the interest of protection of capital. For half a century Congress has been exceedingly lavish in bestowing favors and placing safeguards around manufacturing capital; every branch of industry having been, at different periods, protected by high or prohibitory tariffs. Banking interests have been generously fostered; great railway corporations have been made rich by vast donations of public land; and many millions of the people's money have been squandered through various steamship subsidies.

The policy of protecting our manufacturing industries while in their infancy was undoubtedly wise; but anything more than incidental or revenue protection is burdensome to the people to day. Granting extraordinary charters and lucrative privileges to banking capital was a probable necessity on the eve of the rebellion; yet it is a question whether these great franchises will not bear modification in the near future. As to railway and steamship subsidies, the people think there has been too much of this wasteful legislation. Besides, these subsidies have had a demoralizing influence on our legislators—our recent investigations abundantly prove.

Capital, in a general sense, needs little legislative protection. It can take care of itself, can clothe itself in the finest apparel, can feed itself on the daintiest luxury in the land. But not honest, toiling labor. To live, to obtain shelter, to be fed, and to be clothed, it sells itself to capital—and through sheer necessity. Hence, comparing the relative number of capitalists and toilers in this country, has not labor an equal demand on the protection of Congress? If rich men and wealthy corporations demand fostering legislation, why not the great army of toilers—the farmer who digs the cold, ungrateful soil, the mechanic who works in a dingy shop, the mill employe who earns barely enough to command the necessities of life?

MESSENGER.

B. M. Daggett was appointed Messenger by our Presidential Electors. It will be his duty to carry the vote of Nevada to Washington. It was proper that Mr. Daggett should have this honor conferred upon him. It may be truly said he is the "noblest Roman of them all," as a Republican. The best years of his life have been devoted to the service of that party, and he is getting so old now that if he were to have honors and office given him the remainder of his days it would not repay him one-tenth.

A known fight has been arranged between Jim Mace and Bill Davis, the most clean hits and knock-downs in one hour, for $1,000. The match will come off during the present month, and both men will go into training immediately. Mace and Davis will probably fight on the evening of Saturday week. National Guard Hall, Virginia, is likely to be the scene of the contest.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS.

The sound of the saw and hammer continues to be heard all over the town, and despite the general stagnation of business affairs throughout the country, building improvements are going on at a rapid rate in Reno. The Nevada progress is being made on Mr. A. H. Manning's new house on the bluff west of the Tahoe House. When completed it will be one of the most in town, and the location gives it a commanding view. Mr. W. J. Muir has the foundation laid of his house south of J. H. Kinkadee's. It will be a valuable addition to that section. The house up on Second street, near the creek, is the property of Mr. Joseph Long. It will soon be ready for occupancy. W. Coffin's two-story residence on Fourth street, west of West, is coming up grandly. It is large and roomy, and will be occupied by Mr. Coffin and his son Wallace. Mr. Hoyle is constructing a nice little house in the Western Addition. We do not know the name of the owner of the new house next to Dr. Bishop's on the south side of the river. He is a lucky man, whoever he is. Aside from these two or three new houses are being built in the Western Addition. We notice many others, scattered in various portions of town, just having the finishing touches put on, among them Mr. Crockett's, the hotel, corner of Second and Virginia street, and the Odd Fellow's Hall, the latter being one of the most elegant structures ever erected in the State—an ornament to any place. Other improvements are also being made in this line. Old houses are being made to look like new, outhouses erected, and other accommodations provided. The beautiful weather is an incentive to all of these improvements, and we believe there will be no cessation of building for years to come.

VALUABLE GRAVEL CLAIM.

From W. R. Chamberlain, who returned home yesterday morning from visiting former haunts and friends in Sierra county, Cal., we gather the annexed item. He says the Bald Mountain Gravel Co. are doing well at Forest City, where they have a claim. Last year they divided $200,000, and this year will clean up as much if not more. This Co. have a railroad, locomotive and cars, and with them are enabled to work the claim a great deal more advantageously than in any other manner.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Nothing will recommend workmen more strongly than superior goods. This is the case with John Sunderland, of the one-price boot and shoe store, on Virginia street. He has the very best material in the market, and does as good work as was ever turned out on the Pacific coast. The fluid, style and stock put into his goods gain for them universal approval and a lucrative business is the natural result. Call and examine his work.

PERSONAL.

W. C. Lewis, who has been in Susanville publishing the Pioneer, has returned to Reno. He says the place is not large enough for two weeklies, and he concluded to discontinue the publication of his paper.

IN TOWN.

W. L. French, Esq., of Winnemucca, was in town last evening. Mr. French is a prominent lawyer of that place, and has plenty of practice. We tried to induce him to come to Reno and locate.

K. or P.—Amity Lodge, No. 8, will hold its regular weekly meeting this evening. All members in good standing are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted.

DAVIDSON IS UNPACKING HIS STOCK of Holiday jewelry. Soon as he completes the task will drop around and take notes.

More Telegraphing Facilities.

The Western Union Telegraph Company have just completed the erection of a fourth wire between Reno and Salt Lake. This wire is No. 6, the largest gauge used for telegraphing, and is intended for the use of the quadruplex instrument, whereby four messages can be sent over the same wire simultaneously. The length of this wire is about 600 miles. This section of the Company's line has also been entirely re-insulated, and all pine poles taken out and replaced by redwood, making this one of the most substantial and best pieces of telegraph lines in the United States. The Company has expended about $70,000 on this section alone this year. To meet the growing business on the Company on the Pacific Coast over 1,500 miles of new lines have been put up this year, at a cost of nearly $200,000. Telegraph lines are not like railroads that merely have to hitch on more cars to carry the increased traffic, but when the capacity of a wire is reached a new one must be put up, and extra operators employed to work it, and for this reason the Company claim that rates cannot be greatly reduced without a loss in profit. Frank Bell, Division Superintendent has been out East as far as Elko engaged for the past ten days in seeing that everything was working well, and in good condition for winter service.

The Show To-night.

A first-class show will give Reno a benefit to-night, at Dyer's Hall, with a matinee tomorrow afternoon and a concluding performance Saturday night. We refer to the Royal Marionettes. The programme is a fine one, and sure to please both old and young. Go and laugh heartily over the illustrations of individual foibles, admire the rich and artistic scenery, the wonderful proficiency with which the automatic figures are manipulated and made to represent real life. The dramatic representation in the fantomani are mostly new, introducing the Chinese bell ringers, the Turk and his family and the comic males. The fairy pantomime of "Little Red Riding Hood" is alone worth the price of admission. The grand transformation scene is beautiful beyond description, producing a scenic effect at once startling and admirable. Don't fail to see this excellent show, and take the children along with you—all but the very little ones.

SADDLE ROCK RESTAURANT.

This institution, under the supervision of Pat Kellher, has acquired a reputation second to none in Western Nevada. Everything that can tempt the palate is to be procured there and served in style to which the most fastidious epicure can not but approve. He receives daily consignments of fresh fish and oysters from San Francisco, besides having a corner on the choicest truck furnished by the local market.

SENATOR JONES.

Hon. John P. Jones will leave the East for this Coast day after tomorrow. He has been hard at work for his country for a long time, and he proposes to give his own business a couple of weeks' attention.

BLURTON—Hon. W. W. Bishop, of Pioche, came down from Carson last evening, where he has been doing duty as a Presidential Elector. He will remain in Reno to-day, the guest of his brother, Dr. Bishop.

To THE OAKS—Red Frank Wheeler came down on the lightning last night. Come to see the big race, which comes off to-morrow in San Francisco. Chamberlain is also going down to-night.

The fresh groceries, etc., at Hagerman's are already attracting great attention. The community have learned where to get fresh articles in the grocery and provision line. There is room for more callers.

AVOID GOODS.—Mr. Isaac Fredrick has gone after his holiday stock, and requests us to say he will return with the most select stock ever brought to Reno.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Ralston for the best photograph in the United States, and the Yuma Model for the best in the world.

Boots and shoes made to order and neatly repaired at Sunderland's. He keeps everything in the boot and shoe line, and sells at San Francisco prices.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Grey &

Isaacs, Dry Goods Merchants, Virginia street, have just received their new Winter stock, which for magnitude, cheapness and elegance, can not be equalled in the State. The stock comprises a most gorgeous assortment of the choicest fabrics and colorings in dress goods, as well as the latest fashions in silks, velvets and plushes, all at Eastern prices. Magnificent line of cloaks and shawls, at less than San Francisco prices. A complete stock of furs; also fur trimmings by the yard. Their hosiery is unequalled for style and beauty, and their carpets, house furnishing goods, flannels, blankets, etc., are at least 30 per cent below San Francisco prices. Ladies will do well to call and examine Grey & Isaacs' stocks before purchasing elsewhere, as not only is it the largest and most elegant in the State, but certainly the best and cheapest.

SENDING OUT.—Mrs. T. M. Chase

is determined to close out, regardless of price, her large and varied assortment of dry goods and miscellaneous articles. Now is the time to buy cheap goods.

BANNER SHOP.—S. Schwartz begs leave to inform his former patrons, and the public generally, that he can now be found at the International Hotel. Those who wish a nice clean shave, or shampoo, or hair cut, are requested to favor him with a call.*
